

I strongly support wisconsin's current No Call List. This is one of the more effective programs that has had an immediate effect. Do not change this program.